

WORLD FUEL SERVICES PROCUREMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Definitions: “Affiliate” shall mean, in relation to any company, a corporation, partnership, joint venture or other entity in which such company owns, directly or indirectly, an equity interest of fifty percent (50%) or more, or any corporations or partnerships with the same parent company owning greater than fifty percent (50%) of such corporations or partnerships. “Buyer” shall mean the entity named as such in the Contract and includes its representatives, successors and assigns. “Contract” shall mean the written order document including all attachments contained therein that is entered into between the Buyer and the Supplier for the provision of Goods and/or Services and/or the provision of any Work or Works. “Days” shall mean calendar days unless expressly stated otherwise. “Goods” shall mean all equipment, parts, materials, software, designs and documentation as outlined in the Contract or as required to complete the Services as outlined in the Contract. “Services” shall mean any service performed by Supplier pursuant to and as specified in the Contract. “Sub-Supplier” shall mean any entity to whom the Supplier has purchased any material or service to be incorporated into the Works. “Supplier” shall mean the entity named as such in the Contract and includes its representatives, successors and assigns. “Work” or “Works” shall mean the delivery of the Goods and the supply of all Services the Supplier is required to perform according to the Contract. “Worksite” shall mean any place where the Goods are delivered and/or any place where the Work is executed.

2. Supplier Obligations: Goods shall be new and unused and shall be designed and manufactured in accordance with the Contract. Where no standards or codes of practice are specified in the Contract, Goods shall conform to accepted industry codes and standards. The Services shall be executed and completed in a professional and workmanlike manner with due diligence and strictly in accordance with all requirements of the Contract. The Supplier shall bear without limitation the cost and expense of replacing, correcting or redoing, with due diligence and all expediency, any of the Goods or Services which are defective, incorrect and/or not in accordance with the requirements of the Contract. The Supplier shall provide suitably qualified, competent, skilled, trained and technically experienced personnel. Supplier shall ensure that the necessary personnel are available at the designated Worksite and properly equipped when required by Buyer for commencement of the Services and that said personnel shall continuously be available for the duration of the Services. At the Buyer’s request, the Supplier shall provide evidence of the qualifications and experience of its personnel. The Buyer reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to reject any person employed by the Supplier in connection with the execution of the Work. In the event of such a rejection, the Supplier shall procure a replacement resource without delay and at no cost or expense to the Buyer. While on the Worksite, Supplier shall comply with the policies and procedures of Buyer. Failure to do so shall result in Supplier being obligated to reimburse Buyer for all costs and expenses incurred by Buyer as a result of such failure. Supplier’s equipment utilized in the rendering of the Services shall be suitable for the safe and efficient performance of the Work. Any such equipment which is found to be in an unsafe condition or subject to repeated breakdown or not in full conformance with current and applicable laws and regulations, and Buyer’s standards, shall be promptly removed from the Worksite and replaced or repaired without additional cost to Buyer and without delay in completion of the Work. Supplier shall provide, where required, custom clearances for Supplier’s equipment required for successful completion of the Work, with assistance from Buyer for the necessary recommendation letters if so required. Supplier shall obtain all permits, licenses and other governmental authorizations, which are necessary for the performance of the Work, with the exception of those which must be obtained by the Buyer in its own name. No deviation from the Contract shall be made without Buyer’s prior written authorisation.

3. Compensation and Invoicing: For the satisfactory performance of the Work in accordance with the Contract, Buyer shall pay Supplier in accordance with the rates as specified in Contract. Unless expressly stated otherwise the contract rates shall be: Fixed and not be subject to escalation or adjustment due to variations in materials or labour costs, currency fluctuations or any other factors; Inclusive of all duties, taxes, assessments, fees, or other charges including, but not limited to, excise tax, duty, , mineral oil tax, energy tax, use tax or any other tax (excluding tax on income and value added tax), whether foreign or domestic, that may be imposed directly or indirectly by any taxing authority on any feature or service related hereto (“Taxes”); Exclusive of sales tax, goods and services tax or VAT which if applicable must be shown as a separate cost on invoices; Inclusive of any payroll burdens, or other costs associated with the personnel employed by the Supplier; Inclusive of packing/protection and delivery of the Goods to Worksite as specified in the Contract; Paid in the currency denoted in the Contract. Payment for or acceptance of Services and/or Goods shall not be construed as a waiver of the Buyer’s rights, or as Buyer’s acknowledgement that Supplier’s contractual obligations have been discharged. Supplier shall comply with the invoicing terms and instructions denoted in the Contract subject to applicable local invoicing laws. Invoices shall be accompanied by original supporting documents (including original invoices received from Sub-suppliers or subcontractors, where appropriate). The Buyer shall effect payment within forty five (45) days of receipt by the Buyer of a completed valid invoice with all necessary supporting documentation. As sole remedy for any delay in payment of any undisputed invoice beyond the period stated herein, the Supplier shall be entitled to interest calculated on a monthly basis at one percent (1%) over the thirty (30) day LIBOR rate applicable to the currency concerned as published by Reuters. All invoices shall be submitted timely in relation to the date of completion of the Work being invoiced in accordance with applicable laws. Buyer reserves the right to reject payment of invoices submitted more than sixty (60) days (or such other period as the Parties agree to in writing) following delivery of the Goods and/or completion of the Service covered by the invoice. The Buyer may require the Supplier to provide supporting tax payment documentation as may be required by applicable law. The Buyer may deduct from payments due to the Supplier any amounts subject to a bona fide dispute or based upon a claim against the Supplier. Supplier shall indemnify and hold Buyer harmless from and against any damages, claims, liability, expense or costs (including legal costs) that may be brought against the Buyer or the Buyer may suffer or incur due to Supplier’s failure to pay any of the Taxes. The Buyer may enforce this right of indemnity at any time, including before it has incurred the damages, claims, liability or expense

4. Timely Execution of the Works: The Supplier shall deliver the Works in accordance with the agreed schedule set out in the Contract or as otherwise agreed between the parties. It shall be the responsibility of the Supplier to inform the Buyer of any event or circumstance which may, immediately or in the future, hamper the proper and timely delivery of the Works. As soon as reasonably practicable, written notice must be given to the Buyer outlining the reasons for any delay or anticipated delay. Such notice shall also describe the recommended actions to be taken by the Supplier to overcome or minimise the delay. Without limiting the Supplier’s obligations to perform within the time specified, Buyer has the right to review and approve Supplier’s proposed actions to minimise the delay and instruct at the Supplier’s cost the appropriate actions to be taken to ensure timely delivery of the Works.

5. Shipping & Delivery: Any reference to “Incoterms” shall mean the latest edition. Supplier must ensure that the Goods are properly packed, secured and labelled in accordance with generally accepted industry standards and suitable for the type of transportation. Each loose item will be marked or tagged with Buyer’s Purchase Order reference number. All shipments must include two (2) legible packing lists, with the description of each item, including serial numbers or other form of identification. All packages must show Buyer’s designated company name, purchase order number and also item number where applicable. Supplier shall be responsible for any losses resulting from Supplier’s failure to ship in a manner or route directed by Buyer and for all goods delivered short or damaged or for loss during transit.

6. Changes: Subject to this clause 6, Buyer shall have the right at any time to amend the Contract. Such changes may include additions, deletions, substitutions, alterations, changes in quantity, form, kind, dimension, changes in the specified sequence, method or timing of the provision of the Works. Such changes shall be made by written instruction to the Supplier. Unless otherwise agreed, the extent of such changes shall be limited to reasonable departures from the Works set forth in the Contract. Supplier shall promptly, no later than seven (7) days of becoming aware of a necessary change to the Works, advise Buyer of any proposed change to the Works and such change’s anticipated effect on the Contract. The Supplier shall not proceed with any change unless such change has been authorised in writing by the Buyer.

WORLD FUEL SERVICES PROCUREMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

7. Quality and Inspection: Supplier shall allow Buyer or its appointed representatives the opportunity to inspect, test and/or witness testing of the Goods. Buyer shall have the right to reject any Goods or Works which are defective or inferior or which do not pass any such test. Such inspection/testing/witnessing by Buyer shall not relieve Supplier of any obligation and/or liability under the Contract. The Supplier and Sub-Suppliers shall have an implemented and documented system for Quality Assurance which complies with the principles and guidelines of ISO 9001 or equivalent. The Supplier shall provide, at its own expense, to the Buyer all quality related documentation, inspection reports, test certificates, and quality manuals for review and acceptance by the Buyer as required by the Contract or law. The Supplier shall allow the Buyer or a nominated third-party representative of the Buyer, unrestricted access to the Supplier's or Sub-Supplier's premises where the Works are being performed, for audit and inspection purposes.

8. Health, Safety and Environmental (HSE): The Buyer requires the Supplier and its Sub-Suppliers to actively pursue the highest standards of HSE performance. Supplier shall as a minimum comply with all applicable local, state, federal and country regulations and industry recognised Health, Safety and Environmental standards. Any personnel attending any worksite for the purpose of providing a Service must prior to commencing the Service make themselves fully aware of the local site rules. Supplier must provide the required Personnel Protective Equipment (PPE), training and safety related documentation to all personnel provided by Supplier, in accordance with Buyer's HSE Policy. Supplier shall immediately report in writing to Buyer any accidents or occurrences resulting in injuries to Suppliers, Sub-Suppliers, Buyers employees or third parties, or damage to property of Suppliers, Sub-Suppliers, Buyers or third parties, arising out of, or in connection with the performance of the Work.

9. Warranty: The Supplier expressly warrants that:(a) Goods and/or Services will conform to all requirements of the Contract, be free from defects, and be fit for the purpose defined in the Contract, or, if no such purpose is defined, for the normal usage of such Goods and/or Services; and (b) It shall have good title to all Goods and/or parts thereof and the Goods shall be free from all liens, claims, and encumbrances. The warranties set out in this clause 9 shall remain in full force and effect for a period of twenty-four (24) months from when the Goods are delivered or when Services are completed (whichever is later), or any extended period set out in the Contract, whichever is later. Re-performance of the Services and/or repairs to or replacement of the Goods shall themselves be subject to a further period of twelve (12) months from the date of re-performance, repair or replacement. Supplier shall bear all costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection with correcting defects in the Goods and/or Services. Where applicable, the Buyer shall have the right to assign the benefit of the warranties set out in this clause 9 to its customers, and its and their respective successors or assignees.

10. Default and Take Over: Supplier will be considered in default of this Contract if Supplier is subject to winding up, dissolution, liquidation, receivership, or bankruptcy, or if Supplier is unable to pay any of its debts as and when due and payable or being deemed to be insolvent under any applicable law or, if in the sole opinion of Buyer, Supplier fails at any time during the performance of the Works to provide the necessary labour, equipment, materials, supplies or supervision, fails to use due diligence in the performance of the Works or breaches any provision of the Contract. In the event of any default by the Supplier in the performance of any of its obligations under the Contract, the Buyer may give written notice to the Supplier requesting remedial action be taken with regard to the stated default. Should the Supplier fail to comply with the notice, or to agree alternative remedies with the Buyer, within five (5) days following such notice, the Buyer shall be at liberty to take reasonable actions to remedy the default at the Supplier's sole cost. In the event that, in the Buyer's sole opinion, Supplier's default shall be deemed not capable of remedy to the Buyer's satisfaction, the Buyer shall have the right to immediately terminate the Contract, in part or whole, by serving a notice to the Supplier. In the event of a termination of the Contract, Buyer shall be entitled to take title and possession of part or whole or the allocated portion of the Works. If requested by the Buyer, the Supplier shall assign to the Buyer all its rights, title and interest in any and all sub-order or sub-contract.

11. Force Majeure: In the event of Force Majeure (as defined in this Clause 11), the party so affected shall promptly give written notice, within three (3) days, to the other Party. In the case of Force Majeure, each Party will bear its own costs arising from a Force Majeure event. The affected Party shall make every reasonable effort to remove or remedy the cause of such Force Majeure or mitigate its effects as soon as possible. If the Force Majeure condition continues for more than thirty (30) days the Buyer may terminate the Contract. Neither party shall be considered in breach of its obligations under the Contract for reasons of Force Majeure. "Force Majeure" as referred to herein shall mean an unforeseen occurrence beyond the reasonable control of the party affected and whose effects could not have been avoided and which cannot be overcome by the use of due diligence or foresight. For the purposes of this Contract only, the following occurrences shall be deemed Force Majeure: national strikes or lock outs or other national industrial disturbances or concerted actions of labour except strikes involving the workforce of the Supplier or its Sub-Suppliers; fire, earthquake, explosion and/or other natural physical disaster; acts of God including floods, typhoons, tsunamis, volcanos, earthquakes and other tectonic disturbances; war, civil war, acts of terrorism or armed conflict; nuclear, chemical or biological contamination; changes to any governmental legislation; any hack, electronic intrusion, or other unauthorized access or manipulation of any computer, electronic data, or electronic system; any pandemic, epidemic or quarantine restriction.

12. Suspension of the Works: The Buyer may, at any time at its sole option, suspend all or part of the Works for any reason whatsoever by giving written notice to the Supplier. In such an instance, Supplier shall cease the Works on the effective date of suspension. Except as expressly set forth in this Clause 12, such suspension shall not in any way invalidate or alter the Contract and Supplier's responsibilities under the terms of the Contract. The Supplier shall use its best efforts to minimise and mitigate costs associated with suspension. When requested by Buyer, the Supplier shall immediately resume the performance of the Works. Buyer will grant no compensation or extension of time for any suspension that might result from an action, inaction, omission or default caused by the Supplier.

13. Termination for Convenience: Where Supplier is not in default, Buyer may terminate this Contract for convenience by providing thirty (30) days' advance written notice. The Supplier must cease performance of its obligations as instructed in such notice. Upon termination of this Contract, Supplier shall be entitled to be paid the full value of the Works satisfactorily completed in part or whole up to the date of termination, together with reasonable costs to be mutually agreed between Buyer and Supplier associated with such termination and not previously paid. In no event shall the total amount paid to Supplier exceed the contract price for the applicable Goods and/or Services. The Supplier acknowledges its obligations to take all reasonable steps to mitigate liabilities arising from such termination. The Buyer shall not be liable for any of the Supplier's anticipated costs, losses or loss of profit or business arising out of or in relation to the termination of the Contract under this clause. The exercise by the Buyer of its rights of termination shall be without prejudice to other rights the Buyer may have under the Contract or at law.

14. Title and Risk: Title to Goods, materials, equipment and supplies shall pass to Buyer progressively on provision of the Services and/or delivery of Goods, or payment (whichever occurs first). All materials or equipment for which the title has passed to the Buyer shall be clearly marked by the Supplier as the Buyer's property and where possible be stored separately. Notwithstanding transfer of title, risk of loss or damage shall remain with the Supplier, and Supplier shall retain care, custody and control of said items and exercise due care thereof to protect them from loss or damage until delivery of the Goods to Worksite.

15. Law and Dispute Resolution:

The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (1980) shall not apply to any Contract.

Non-US Contracts:

Save only as set out below, these World Fuel Services Procurement Terms and Conditions and any Contract shall be governed by English law and any dispute arising out of or in connection with the foregoing shall be determined by the High Court in London, which shall have exclusive jurisdiction.

US Contracts:

WORLD FUEL SERVICES PROCUREMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Where the place of incorporation of the Supplier is, or where any Work is to be performed within, the United States of America then these World Fuel Services Procurement Terms and Conditions and any Contract thereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida and the Supplier and the Buyer hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Federal Courts of Miami-Dade County, Florida and irrevocably waive the defence of an inconvenient forum or improper venue to the maintenance of any action in Miami-Dade County, Florida.

Australian Contracts:

Where the place of incorporation of the Supplier is, or where any Work is to be performed within, the Commonwealth of Australia then these World Fuel Services Procurement Terms and Conditions and any Contract thereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Victoria and the Supplier and the Buyer hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Victoria, Australia and irrevocably waive the defence of an inconvenient forum or improper venue to the maintenance of any action in Victoria, Australia.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may bring an action to enforce a judgment obtained in respect of any Contract where the other party has assets or property.

Canadian Contracts:

Where the place of incorporation of the Supplier is, or where any Work is to be performed, within Canada, then these World Fuel Services Procurement Terms and Conditions and any Contract thereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein and the Supplier and the Buyer hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Province of Ontario and irrevocably attorn to the jurisdiction of the courts of such province and irrevocably waive the defence of an inconvenient forum or improper venue to the maintenance of any action in the Province of Ontario.

16. Insurance: The Supplier shall effect and maintain throughout the term of the Contract sufficient insurance to cover its liabilities under the Contract and at law, such coverage including but not limited to: Worker's Compensation, Employer's Liability Insurance covering claims and liabilities for the death of or injury to any person employed by the Supplier in connection with Contract. These insurances shall be endorsed to indemnify and hold Buyer harmless from and against any and all liability Buyer may have either by operation of statute or at common law; Comprehensive General Liability Insurance covering claims and liabilities in respect of death of or accident or injury to any person or any property loss or damage (including that of Buyer); Automobile Liability Insurance in respect of all motor vehicles, whether owned or not, used in connection with the Work in the types and amounts required under applicable laws. Such insurance policies shall contain a waiver of subrogation against the Buyer and shall name the Buyer's as additional insured. The Supplier's obligation for maintenance of insurance under this clause 16 shall in no way limit the Supplier's indemnity obligations under the Contract. Supplier shall provide on demand valid certificate(s) of insurance in respect thereof evidencing such insurance coverage. Failure of Supplier to obtain and maintain in effect any of said insurance policies, or to furnish certificates of insurance or allow inspection of policies, shall be sufficient cause to allow Buyer to withhold payments due, to exercise its rights under clause 10, or to terminate for default. The failure of the Buyer to request or receive a certificate of insurance, or the acceptance of an incomplete certificate shall not operate as a waiver of the Supplier's obligations hereunder.

17. Indemnity: Supplier shall indemnify, defend and hold Buyer and its Affiliates, directors, officers, employees and agents harmless from and against any and all expenses (including attorneys' fees) liabilities and claims of whatsoever kind and nature, including but not limited to, those for damage to property (including property of the parties) or for injury to or death of any person (including a party), directly or indirectly, arising or alleged to arise out of or in any way connected with the willful misconduct, negligent acts or omissions, violation of law, or breach of this Agreement by the Supplier. The foregoing indemnity shall not apply to the extent such expense, liability or claims result from the negligent acts or omissions or willful misconduct of Buyer.

18. Consequential Loss: Notwithstanding any other provision of this Contract: Supplier shall release, indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Buyer from and against any Consequential Loss sustained by Supplier related to this Contract, its performance or breach, even if the loss or damage results from Buyer's negligence, breach of contract, strict liability, other legal fault or otherwise. "Consequential Loss" shall include but not be limited to loss of profits, production delays, loss of production or product, loss of or interruption to business, loss of any contract or other business opportunity, loss of use of property or wasted overheads, losses resulting from failure to meet other contractual commitments or deadlines, or any special, incidental, or consequential loss or damage of any nature sustained by the indemnifying party in connection with or arising out of this Contract, howsoever the same may arise whether under contract, tort (including negligence) strict liability or otherwise.

19. Audit Rights: For the period from the start of the Work up to five (5) years after completion of the Work, the Supplier and its Sub-Suppliers shall keep full and accurate records pertaining to the Services and/or Goods supplied. The Buyer shall have the right of audit of these records including but not limited to all records, books, correspondence and including original invoices of Supplier's Sub-Suppliers.

20. Language: The language of the Contract and all documentation provided by the parties and their Sub-Suppliers shall be in English.

21. Assignment and Subcontracting: The Supplier shall not assign or sublet the Contract or any part of the Contract without the prior written consent of Buyer. No Subcontracting of any of the Works by Supplier shall relieve the Supplier from any obligations or liabilities under this Contract and the Supplier shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of any Sub-Supplier as though they were acts and omissions of the Supplier. The Buyer may assign or otherwise transfer the benefit of the Contract in whole or in part to any other party at any time without the Supplier's consent.

22. Liens: The Supplier agrees to protect, defend, indemnify and hold the Buyer and the Buyer's customers, and their respective Affiliates, harmless from and against all liens, claims, suits, demands and judgements, which may arise out of, or in connection with this Contract. Buyer and its customers may enforce this right of indemnity at any time before it has incurred the relevant liability. The Supplier agrees to waive any right to exercise a lien to make claim or seek a judgement or award against the Services and/or Goods or part of at any time. The Supplier acknowledges that its sole right in the event of failure by the Buyer to perform any of its obligations under the Contract is to seek financial relief in respect thereof.

23. Entire Agreement: The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto and supersedes all prior negotiations, agreements, representations and understandings written or oral except to the extent they are expressly incorporated into the Contract.

24. Confidentiality: The Supplier shall ensure at all times its officers, employees, Sub-Suppliers and agents maintain full secrecy and keep confidential all matters and confidential information provided by the Buyer that are not in the public domain concerning or arising out of the performance of the Contract.

25. Severability/Partial Invalidity: In the event that any provision of this Contract, for any reason, are held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect by a court of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be read down to the minimum extent necessary to achieve its validity, legality and enforceability, and severed from these Terms and Conditions in any other case, and any invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of any other part or provision of this Contract.

26. Ethics and Compliance: The Supplier warrants and represents to the Buyer that in carrying out its business activities it complies with the generally accepted standards of business ethics and conduct. Further, Supplier acknowledges that the Government of the United States of America has imposed: (a) trade sanctions and export restrictions against certain countries and political areas and companies, nationals and U.S. Government-designated nationals of such countries and areas, (b) restrictions on U.S. companies and nationals doing business with them, and (c) restrictions on U.S. companies and nationals doing business with certain companies and persons who the U.S. Government has determined have violated the foregoing restrictions. Supplier agrees that it shall keep itself informed of and shall comply with such sanctions and restrictions as they are revised from time to time, and that neither Supplier, any Supplier associate, nor any of the parties performing the Works on behalf Supplier hereunder shall be entities or individuals subject to such sanctions and restrictions. Supplier shall at all times comply with all applicable laws, foreign and domestic, applicable to Supplier's business and the Works. In the event that it should come to the attention of the Buyer that the Supplier has engaged, is engaging in or is about to engage in any activity which may result in violation of this clause 26, Supplier will take such corrective action as the Buyer may request. Any breach by the Supplier, its directors, officers, employees, subcontractors and agents of any provision contained in this clause 26 is a material breach of the Contract and the Buyer's remedies shall, in addition to the right of immediate termination, as set forth under clause 10, include any other remedies available under applicable law. In addition to any other indemnities, Supplier shall owe to Buyer, the Supplier must defend, indemnify and hold the Buyer harmless from and against all claims, damages, demands, litigation, costs (including legal costs), losses and expenses, howsoever arising, that may be brought against the Buyer or which the Buyer may suffer or incur, arising out of the Supplier's violation of this clause 26. Buyer may enforce this right of indemnity at any time before it has incurred the relevant liability. Each Party represents that it will comply with all anti-bribery laws applicable to the performance of this Agreement. Each Party represents that neither it nor, to its knowledge, any director, officer, agent, employee or other person acting on its behalf, has made, offered or authorized, or will make, offer or authorize, either directly or indirectly, any unlawful payment, gift, promise or other advantage related to this Agreement. Each Party represents that it will conduct its activities applicable to the performance of this Agreement in a manner that complies with the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which include, but are not limited to: refusing to use forced or child labor; refusing to tolerate discrimination, harassment, abuse, or retaliation in their work place; and providing wages, benefits, and working hours that meet or exceed the applicable legal standards and regulations. Where a Contract is performed wholly or partly within the United States of America, the Supplier shall abide by the requirements of 41 CFR §§ 60-1.4(a), 60-300.5(a) and 60-741.5(a). These regulations prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals based on their status as protected veterans or individuals with disabilities, and prohibit discrimination against all individuals based on their race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or national origin. Moreover, these regulations require that covered prime contractors and subcontractors take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment individuals without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, protected veteran status or disability.

27. Proprietary Rights: In addition to any other indemnities Supplier shall owe to Buyer, the Supplier shall at its own expense defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Buyer, Buyer's customers and users of Services and/or Goods from all claims, damages, demands, costs (including legal costs), litigation, losses and expenses, that may be brought against the Buyer or which the Buyer may suffer or incur, resulting from the Supplier's infringement of a trademark, patent or registered design, or proprietary right. Buyer may enforce this right of indemnity at any time before it has incurred the relevant liability. In the event of suit or pending suit for infringement where the use of the Goods and/or Goods or part is enjoined, the Supplier shall at its own expense either procure for the Buyer the right for continued usage, or replace and reinstall Goods or part of, with substantially equal but non-infringing Goods. Title to, access to, copyright, the right to possession of and free use of all things created under or arising out of the Goods shall vest in the Buyer immediately upon commencement of or creation of the article, document, or proprietary data. The Buyer shall have the sole right to seek patents on any item or idea arising out of the performance of the Contract and the Supplier shall assist the Buyer in registering such rights if so requested. The Supplier shall grant the Buyer a transferable, non-exclusive, royalty-free, world-wide licence to use any patented process of the Supplier and any software programmes included in or ancillary to any Good supplied under the Contract.

28. Waiver: No remedy referred to in these terms of Contract is intended to be exclusive, but each shall be cumulative and in addition to any other remedy referred to herein or otherwise available to Buyer at law or in equity. The exercise or beginning to exercise by Buyer of any one or more such remedies shall not preclude the simultaneous or later exercise by Buyer of any or all such other remedies. All remedies under these terms of Contract survive termination of the Contract. Failure by Buyer to enforce any of its rights hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of such rights or any other rights hereunder. No waiver of any of the provisions of these terms of Contract shall be effective unless it is in writing, and signed by Buyer and Supplier. Any such written waiver shall only be applicable to the specific instance to which it relates and shall not be deemed to be a continuing or future waiver.
