PRESS RELEASE

World Fuel Services strengthens customer offering with new physical marine fuel supply in Florida's Tampa Bay Area

Miami, Florida (March 1, 2018) World Fuel Services (WFS) is pleased to announce a new physical marine fuel supply location in Tampa, Florida. WFS will supply fuel oil and marine diesel from Port Manatee to vessels in the Tampa Bay area.

Joe Gowen, SVP Global Marine Supply, said; "World Fuel Services continue to invest in selective physical supply locations. When selecting locations for WFS we carry out an intense risk assessment ensuring we are able to deliver the highest standards of service."

World Fuel Services will have two dual capacity tug and barge units to service the area and have partnered with a proven leader in the marine transport of petroleum products, Vane Brothers.

"Valued relationships and collaboration are key, and we will continue to invest where we can work with port authorities, first class barge companies and our customers." Joe Gowen concluded.
