

1984: Chairman Emeritus, Paul Stebbins, and CEO, Michael Kasbar, founded Trans-Tec, a marine fuel brokerage company

1986: International Recovery becomes a publicly-traded company

1990: Significant organic growth prompts expansion with offices in key global markets

1995: International Recovery acquires Trans-Tec and changes company name to World Fuel Services Corporation

1998: BaseOps adds flight-based services

1999: Bunkerfuels acquisition enhances market share in Marine Energy

2000: PAFCO joint venture expands Aviation services

2001: Marine Energy, Norse Bunkers, Oil Shipping Group acquisitions expand Marine

2004: Tramp Oil to expand Marine business

2007: AVCARD expands Business & General Aviation transaction processing capabilities

2008: Texor expands branded distribution

2009: TGS Petroleum expands branded distribution

2010: Henty Oil expands Marine and Land presence in United Kingdom

2010: Lakeside Oil expands branded gas/diesel distribution in Midwestern US

2010: Western Petroleum expands Land and Avitaion distribution

2011: Hiller and Ascent expand Business & General Aviation and add deicing

2011: NCS expands government Aviation business

2012: Carter Energy expands branded gas/diesel distribution in Midwestern United States

2012: Multi Service Technology Solutions expands payment-processing capabilities

2012: MH Aviation and totalFBO expand Aviation

2013: U.S. Energy Services adds natural gas, compressed natural gas and electricity consulting services

2014: Watson Petroleum expands fuel and lubricants distribution in United Kingdom

2014: Colt International and Avinode expands presence in Business & General Aviation

2015: Bergen Energy grows energy & sustainability practice across Europe

2015: KTM expands energy & sustainability practice in North America

2015: BP's former Statoil Fuel & Retail Aviation business at 4 general & business aviation airports in Scandinavia to expand global presence

2015: Pester Marketing Company with its Alta Fuels to expand terminals and distribution of biofuels and lubricants to whole-sale, commercial, and agricultural customers in the U.S.

2016: PAPCO expands fuel and lubricants distribution in the Eastern U.S.

2016: Associated Petroleum Products (APP) to provide fuel & related services to agricultural automotive, construction, and commercial and industrial customers in the Pacific Northwest

2016: Utilities Exchange Ltd. To expand consultancy & energy management services to commercial and industrial customers across Europe

2016: Acquisition of ExxonMobil aviation fueling operations at 34 airports in Canada and France

2017: Orchard Energy, UX Energy Services, Professional Utility Board acquired

2018: OnDemand Energy Solutions acquired

2019: UVair further expands Aviation

2019: Our land fuels division and Kinect Energy division to converge to become World Kinect Energy Services

2019: WFS joins UN Global Compact

2020: Our Aviation division acquires FBO One

2021: Lykins acquisition

2022: Flyers acquisition

2023: Changed Parent Company Name to World Kinect Corporation

